Introduction

The project features on building a website for an Engineering, Agriculture and Consultant Services company in order to increase their online presence and make their services easily accessible for the customers.

Motivation

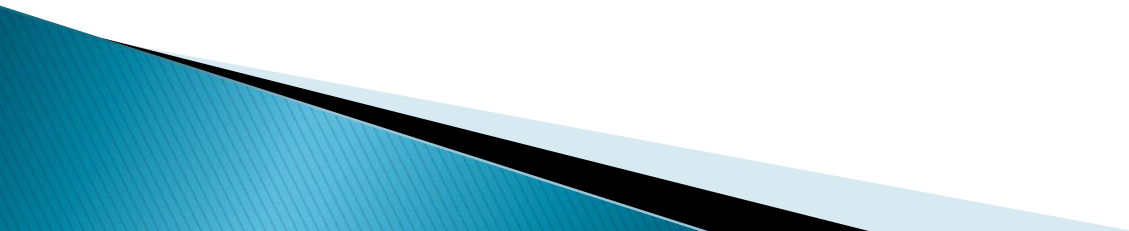

The motivation behind the development of a website for Anudeep Industries is to help the company connect with potential clients and showcase its services effectively. A professional and user-friendly website can help to establish credibility and make a positive impression on visitors, leading to new business opportunities

Literature survey

Sr.No	Title	Author	Objective
1	User Interface and User Experience UIUX Design	1. Robert E. Roth	user experience design, user interface design, interactive maps, interaction primitives, interaction operators
2	Website Developmemt Technologies: A Review	1. Pratiksha D Dutonde 2. Shivani S Mamidwar 3. Prof. Dhiraj D Shirbhate	Web Applications design issues and implementation of pc code that runs on internet servers

Problem statement

Anudeep Industries faces the challenge of connecting with potential clients and showcasing its services effectively. Without a professional and user-friendly website, it may be challenging to attract new clients and demonstrate the value of its services.

Objective

- Provide detailed information about the agriculture services, engineering services, and consultant services offered by Anudeep Industries
- Showcase the company's expertise and past projects through a portfolio section.
- Enable potential clients to contact Anudeep Industries for inquiries and consultations.
- Improve the company's online visibility and brand recognition.
Enhance user experience through responsive design and intuitive navigation
